Overview

A multi-destination circuit linking Ouarzazate, Aït Ben Haddou, the High Atlas crossing and Marrakech, with two nights in a city riad or hotel named in your quote. Combine earthen heritage, mountain viewpoints, medina stories and Moroccan food at a considered pace. Return to Ouarzazate on day three, allowing weather and road conditions to determine mountain stops.

Experiences

1. Kasbah heritage
2. Atlas & medina discovery

Your itinerary

Day 1 / Ouarzazate → Aït Ben Haddou → Marrakech

Start at 08:00 and explore Aït Ben Haddou with a local guide, taking the lower paths if the climb is unsuitable. After lunch, cross the High Atlas on the Tizi n'Tichka road with safe viewpoint and rest stops chosen by the driver. Reach Marrakech, check in and enjoy a short orientation walk near your accommodation. Mountain weather can alter the schedule; no roadside stop is mandatory if unsafe.

Day 2 / Marrakech: medina, gardens & shared tables

Meet your local guide after breakfast for a walk around the Koutoubia exterior and medina lanes. Visit Bahia Palace if tickets and access are confirmed, then pause for lunch away from the busiest streets. Leave the afternoon for a garden stop or free time agreed with the group. At dusk, discover Jemaa el-Fnaa at a comfortable pace; food choices and any tasting are confirmed separately, not an automatic package inclusion.

Day 3 / Marrakech → High Atlas → Ouarzazate

After breakfast and checkout, leave Marrakech with a relaxed return schedule. Cross Tizi n'Tichka in daylight, stopping for lunch and fresh air where safe. A brief landscape stop on the southern descent keeps the journey varied without adding a long detour. Return to the agreed Ouarzazate address in the afternoon or early evening, subject to traffic and conditions. An alternative one-way finish in Marrakech requires a revised quote.

Accessibility & practical notes

Several hours of road travel, uneven walking paths and weather-dependent stops. Request suitable child seating, mobility support and room arrangements in advance. The driver can change unsafe stops; this is not a technical trekking or off-road expedition.

Questions & answers

Are dates, prices and places already confirmed?

No. Request your preferred date. The team confirms the provider, route, staffing, final price and available places in writing. An enquiry is not a reservation, and no invented seat count or departure date is displayed.

Can the journey finish in Marrakech instead?

Yes, ask for a one-way variation. It changes the transport and final-day programme, so the team prepares a revised quote rather than assuming the return price still applies.

Are monument visits and mountain stops guaranteed?

No. Access, opening times, weather and road conditions are checked before travel. The guide and driver explain any replacement visit and obtain agreement for material programme changes.
