Overview

An unhurried introduction to the city of kasbahs and cinema. Discover Taourirt's earthen architecture, pause for a Moroccan lunch, and explore the film heritage that made Ouarzazate a world-famous backdrop. Start and finish in Ouarzazate, with room to adapt the day to your interests.

Experiences

1. Taourirt Kasbah & the old quarter
2. Cinema Museum & Atlas Studios
3. A local lunch stop, chosen with you

Your itinerary

Day 1 / City stories, a shared table & the cinema trail

Meet your driver at a confirmed Ouarzazate pickup point. Begin with Taourirt Kasbah and a guided introduction to the surrounding old quarter; interior access depends on current opening arrangements. Continue to the Cinema Museum, then allow an unrushed lunch break. In the afternoon, visit Atlas Studios for the sets open to visitors that day. Working productions can change studio access. Return to the city by late afternoon, with an optional short craft stop if time allows. Exact pickup and return times are agreed in your quotation.

Meals: Lunch stop arranged; food and drinks paid separately unless your quotation includes them.

Overnight: No overnight stay; return to your Ouarzazate pickup point.

Accessibility & practical notes

Step-free access and child seats must be confirmed individually; a vehicle transfer does not guarantee that every site is accessible.

Questions & answers

Is this a confirmed departure?

This is a proposed itinerary available on request. Your preferred date, provider, price and exact services must be confirmed in writing before any reservation is accepted.

Are all film sets accessible?

No. Studios are working production spaces. Visitor routes may change or close. The provider must confirm access and agree any replacement visit with you.

Can I replace the museum with a food or craft visit?

Yes, ask for a tailored quote. A workshop, hosted meal or cooperative visit requires its own availability check and may change the price.
