Your itinerary

Day 1 / Ouarzazate → Taznakht → Ouarzazate

Leave Ouarzazate in the morning with your driver, allowing for road conditions and rest stops. In Taznakht, meet the host at the artisan workshop or cooperative named in your confirmed programme. Discover how wool, patterns and weaving are discussed and used in the local carpet tradition. A live demonstration is included only when a working artisan has agreed to host it; hands-on weaving is a separate arrangement. Allow time for questions, browsing and photographs where permission is given. Break for lunch at a pre-arranged local table or a venue agreed with your driver. If you choose to purchase, agree the price, materials, dimensions, receipt and any delivery terms directly with the seller. Return to Ouarzazate during the afternoon or early evening. No particular cooperative or shopping commission is implied by this proposed itinerary.

Questions & answers

Is my preferred date confirmed immediately?

You can request any future date. The team checks the driver or guide, opening arrangements and your group's needs before sending a written quotation. Sending a request does not reserve a departure or require immediate payment.

Can children join?

Families can request these private programmes. Share children's ages, infant and child-seat needs, walking preferences and any practical support requirements. The provider confirms suitability and any separate child or infant rate.

How are changes and cancellation handled?

Your written quotation states the final programme, inclusions, payment arrangements and cancellation terms. Review these before accepting. Weather, access or host availability may require a revised route, agreed with you before departure.
