Turn Ouarzazate into a classroom for one memorable day, from 08:00 to 18:00. Pupils discover earthen architecture, cinema history and the teamwork behind a film set through guided visits and a creative group challenge. The school remains responsible for consent, supervision and safeguarding; transport, visitor access and the age-appropriate programme are agreed before confirmation.

Your itinerary

Day 1 / A learning day in Morocco's cinema city

At 08:00, teachers check the attendance list before departure. Explore Taourirt with short observation tasks, then visit the Cinema Museum where access is available. After a supervised lunch break, continue to the visitor route at Atlas Studios; active filming may require an alternative. Small teams create a simple storyboard rather than filming strangers. Teachers supervise every transfer, restroom break and activity. Return to the school meeting point at 18:00.

Accessibility & practical notes

The school supplies pupils' ages, teacher numbers, parental consent and an emergency contact. Staff agree an age-appropriate route and supervision plan. No unattended children, dune activities or motorised adventure extras are part of this school day.

Questions & answers

Are dates, prices and places already confirmed?

No. Request your preferred date. The team confirms the provider, route, staffing, final price and available places in writing. An enquiry is not a reservation, and no invented seat count or departure date is displayed.

Who supervises the pupils?

Teachers and the school's designated adults remain responsible for pupils throughout. A guide does not replace teachers. The school and provider agree group size, adult supervision, pickup and emergency arrangements before confirmation.

Will pupils be photographed or posted online?

No publication is part of the trip. The school manages any necessary permissions. Do not send pupil identity documents or medical files through the enquiry form; discuss essential arrangements securely with the team.
